

SOMERLED 2010 ADELAIDE HILLS SAUVIGNON BLANC

This wine is made from sauvignon blanc grapes grown near Charleston in the Adelaide Hills region of South Australia. The beautifully flavoured fruit was harvested at full ripeness. Fermentation and preparation for bottling was in stainless steel. This wine is all about pristine, super-premium fruit and has received minimal interference from the winemaker.

This wine is made for early enjoyment! It's a fine aperitif wine and is delicious with light seafood dishes (especially oysters).

Appearance	Pale, very bright and fresh with attractive tints.
Nose	This is very fragrant, with lifted tropical notes enhanced by typical fresh leafiness. Unmistakably, delectably sauvignon blanc!
Palate	Delicate, flavoursome, dry, crisp and lingering. Refreshing and a very popular, medal-winning wine. Drink with or without food.
